

Connecting the borehole to the riser pipe Blow Out Preventer (BOP)

Blow out preventer is installed to the seabed to prevent a blowout of high pressure oil or gas from stratum. In case of a blowout, BOP can seal or shut off a borehole with special valves, one of that can shear even the drill pipe.

